Conditions of Sale.

FIRST.—The highest bidder shall be the buyer, subject to the right of the auctioneer to reject any biddings he may think fit, or to withdraw, consolidate or divide any lots, and subject to the right of the vendors to bid by themselves or agents. If any dispute arise as to the highest bidding, such dispute shall be finally settled by the auctioneer, or, at his option, the lot in dispute may be re-sold.

SECOND.—No bidding shall be retracted. The biddings will be regulated by the auctioneer.

THIRD.—The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 5s. in the pound as a deposit and in part payment of the purchase money, if required; in default of which, the lot or lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold. In the case of a purchaser buying more than one lot the deposit or purchase money is to be paid in respect of all lots purchased, and no individual lot will be delivered until the whole of the purchase money is paid.

FOURTH.—The lots to be at the purchaser's risk at the fall of the hammer, and to be paid for and taken away whether genuine and authentic or not, with all faults and errors of description or otherwise (if any), at the buyer's expense and risk BEFORE FOUR O'CLOCK ON SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10TH, 1906. No lot to be removed until after the sale is over. Messrs. DONALD, TARRY, AMES & Co. making no warranty whatever, and not being responsible for the correct description, genuineness, or authenticity of, or any default or defect in, any lot.

FIFTH.—The purchasers to make good any damage that may be done in removing their lots. On failure of complying with the conditions, the auctioneer may re-sell the lot or lots, either by public auction or private contract, and the deficiency (if any), with all the expenses, shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale, but such defaulter shall not be entitled to any surplus which may arise by such re-sale. Such expenses shall be deemed to include the usual auctioneer's commission on such re-sale, and all expenses for porters, advertising, carriage, care, keep and otherwise.
